

TENZIN CHOEDON

Tenzin Choedon is a Research Associate currently working in International Centre for Genetic Engineering and Biotechnology (ICGEB). She has done her schooling from Tibetan Children's Village School, graduated with Honours in B.Sc. Zoology from Miranda House, Delhi University in 1998 and post graduated with M.Sc. Biotechnology from Jamia Hamdard in 2000. Recently she received her doctorate in Biomedical Science from Bharathidasan University, Tamil Nadu.

Tenzin was recruited as Research Associate in ICGEB (2000) where she has been actively involved in anticancer research programs pioneered by Dr. Vijay Kumar. She has attained expertise in identification of anticancer drugs in onco-mouse models and cell culture. She has published important papers in peer reviewed journals. Furthermore, she has been an avid participant in a number of prestigious conferences relevant to her area of research organized by esteemed organizations. She has been actively involved in different scientific programs organized in cancer therapeutics.
