By the end of 2002, I move to South Africa to be with husband and during my 3 and half years in South Africa. I have managed to conduct consultations; talks on Tibetan Medicine and with that bringing awareness about Tibetan issue to a part would where we were only 6 Tibetans representing 6 million Tibetans in a way. I have also attended 2nd international Congress on TM in Washington D.C in 2003. Recently in Oct 2007, I made a Europe Tour where in Paris; I made a talk and TM during "Himalayan Festival "there. People are fascinated with an age old practice and many appreciated our way of diagnosing and holistic treatment. From my School experience, I've realized that as Tibetan doctor and a Tibetan and first we can help people in a great deal through our holistic approach towards life and health. Many times people would come to us to cry and tell their stories and my job was just to listen and later share my views. My experience says I still have so a many experiences to experience and my future plan is to spread more awareness and get support in getting our medicine the "International Recognition"
